Thieves Break Into LePage's Service Station—Teen Age Girls Tell Weird Kidnap Story To Provincials.

Local thieves are no respectors of persons. Last Thursday night feeling the need for some spare cash, they entered the service station of Fire Chief LePage, who is also a Town constable, and stole a sum of money.

Entrance was gained by forcing open a locked and nailed window at the rear of the station. Between $15 and $20 was taken from a cash box in the drawer of a desk. A large number of loose gasoline coupons and some coupon books were not touched. Also a considerable sum of money in another place was not found.

COUNTY COUNCIL GIVES $11,000 TO VARIOUS RED CROSS FUNDS

Money Will Go To Local Branches On An Assessment Basis—Increase Over Last Year—Largest Ever Given—To Buy Herd Sire—Will Consider Installation Of Fire Alarm System In County Home—Grant $1,000 To War Services Committee.

A grant of $11,000 was made by the Red Cross Society Wednesday by Lincoln County council. In approving the report of the Patriotic Committee, presented by Chairman William Lothian, Reeve of Grimsby, the council made the largest grant it has given the Red Cross. For the past two years it has donated $10,000 each year. The money will be apportioned among the branches in the county in proportion to the equalized assessments of their municipalities.

A grant of $1,000 was also made to the Lincoln County Citizens' War Services Committee "to aid in their work of rehabilitation of returned soldiers."

A proposition to install a complete fire alarm system in the buildings of the Lincoln County Home was referred to the Home

15 SECOND GRANT

With The Departure From Grimsby Of Dr. Ben. Rogers, Work On Local Doctors Will Be Greatly Increased—City Hospitals Over-crowded.

Last week a delegation representing the West Lincoln Memorial Hospital waited on the County Council at St. Catharines to report on the progress of the development in hand.

Mr. A. R. Globe of Grimsby and Mr. Bruce Reid of Beamsville as Directors represented that Board and Dr. J. H. Leeds, Smithville, represented the Medical staff.

Mr. Globe in his report stated that all deeds to the property have been registered in the name of the Hospital, the only provision in the deeds being that if the property should cease to be operated as a Hospital it would then become the property of the County of Lincoln.

The Financial Statement showed a strong position, and that a further sum of $10,000.00 would be necessary to round out the programme proposed. It was further

Merchant Seaman Visits Grimsby

Gordon Stevens Of Thorold Met L.A.C. Jack Morris In India And Brings Message To His Mother.

Mrs. Milton Morris of Paton St. had a very pleasant surprise the other day when Gordon Stevens, a merchant seaman from Thorold, knocked on her door. He had a message from her son L.A.C. Jack Morris who is in India. They had met in a restaurant in Calcutta called "Jimmy's Kitchen". Jack's message to his mother was written on the back of the bill of fare.

Gordon Stevens has just arrived from India with a boat load of tea. He told of the utter starvation among the natives there and how the dead lying in the streets are piled into a truck and thrown into the river. These trucks going through the streets at intervals much like garbage trucks.

Gordon Stevens had formerly been in the navy but was discharged

Bell Employee Saves A Life

Gerald MacInnery Gives His Blood To A Grimsby Woman Who Was On The Border.

The value of a blood transfusion was amply shown last week with a local citizen, when Mrs. Mitchell, a sister-in-law of Charles Norman our local Bell Telephone "trouble shooter" was taken to Hamilton hospital for an operation.

It was found necessary to give the lady a blood transfusion. The hospital at the moment was unable to provide it. A telephone call to Grimsby found Norman out in the country. Mrs. Norman was at the hospital. She called the head office in Hamilton of the Bell Co. and in less than one hour seven employees of the company had reported at the hospital, willing to give their blood.

Some of those men came right off a job, one of them Gerald MacInnery was found to be the right type and the transfusion was made.

Mrs. Mitchell is rapidly gaining strength and will soon be able to leave the hospital, thanks to Gerald MacInnery and the Bell Telephone Co.

Will Sell Old Children's Aid Building—Will Confer With Hon. George Challies On Hydro Rates—Purchase New Road Grader.

The building formerly used as the children's shelter, at the corner of Queenston street and Eastchester avenue, St. Catharines will be put up for sale, it was decided at the meeting of Lincoln County Council. The building has not been used as a shelter for about eight years after the Children's Aid Society adopted a policy of placing children in boarding homes where they could live with a family and grow up more like a normal child.

Authority was given the Children's Aid Society to try to sell the building which is owned jointly by the county and the city of St. Catharines. Since its use as a shelter was discontinued, the building has been altered a little and rented as apartments. Council discussed the idea of selling it early in the war, but it was decided to retain it for possible use for British children who were being evacuated to

COUNCIL TURN THUMBS DOWN ON COUNTY NURSE UNIT IDEA

Proposition For County To Pay Full Cost Of Public School Nurses And Extend Service Flatly Rejected—Present System To Remain County's Share Of Children's Aid Society This Year Will Be $3,781—No County Rates Outstanding For First Time In 24 Years.

The proposed county nurse unit under which the county council would pay the full cost of public school nurses and would extend the service to every public school in the county, was flatly rejected Tuesday morning at Lincoln County Council opened its March session. The proposal was made to the council in January by Public Schools Inspector W. A. Marshall and a deputation from the county nurse committee.

Councillors Lymburner, Fitzroy D'Arcy, R. G. Dawson, D. Hiltz, Cecil Secord, R. A. Saunders, Wallace McCready, George Montgomerie, W. E. Heaslip, J. G. Pettigrew, G. W. Crittenden and Charles W. Durham.

The report recommended "that we leave the nursing system in the schools as it is at present, as we do not feel we should force this on the schools who have left the nursing services at the present time.

"We also feel that the present nursing service could be greatly improved upon, so therefore we would recommend that the trustee boards of the public schools, who are not satisfied with the present nursing services should take up the matter with the county inspector.

NOTE FOR TO-DAY

Their gift is not in golden coin:
In higher values must we measure
Lives offered up in Freedom's cause
While we but lend an earthly treasure.

With all we have we must support
Our men and women in this fight
That peace may come again to Earth
And all the world be ruled by right.

"BECAUSE I CARE"

A Canadian Soldier Somewhere in England is credited with saying: I will answer the question, "Why are you fighting?" with the statement "because I care."

1. I care about my love for my home and my family, my pride in being a subject in the British Empire, and my resentment against anyone who would, in any way, abuse them.

2. I care about my right to vote as I see best, and to feel this does give me a voice in the shaping of my country's policies, although small, yet not even permissible under the rule of the Axis nations, and so I want to keep living under the present constitution of the empire helping to improve it by fighting those who would tear it down.

3. I care about the education of all children, not that they be taught only the greatness of the British Commonwealth of Nations, but to learn of the greatness of man, irrespective of race nationality, color or creed. I do not want them to be taught of inferior men and subject nations but rather how the peoples of the earth may be benefited by our way of life.

4. I care about my freedom to pay homage to God without interference. Man's approach to his Maker is something entirely apart from his political convictions, and none of the "isms" can hope to be a continued satisfactory substitute for man's eternal faith in the Almighty.

5. I care about the postwar world enough to want to feel I have had a small part in keeping the enemy away and giving the planners for world peace and social security an opportunity to do their part.

HALT! WHO GOES THERE?

Once upon a time there was an infantry battalion that had its full quota of canine followers, of which one was officially recognized as the battalion dog. Low slung, bandy-legged, black and shaggy, there could be only one name for him—SCOTTY.

With the single exception of one Alexander McTurk, attached to the cook-house, Scotty maintained an attitude of dignified detachment towards the rest of the unit. He resented familiarity, refused to unbend even towards such dignitaries as the Colonel and the R.S.M. He belonged to a thousand men, but to no man except, of course, Sandy McTurk, who provided the daily ration. Well, after all!

The common street and garden variety of English sparrow was Scotty's pet hate. These little feathered scavengers look upon an army camp and its cook-house as the logical prerogative of a hungry sparrow. So in great numbers they move in to the happy feeding grounds.

Scotty gave our sparrows no peace. He stalked them, ambushed them, chevied and chased them. The other camp dogs would join in the spirit of the thing and all day long sparrows were kept on the wing. Pigeons, blackbirds, robins, went their ways unmolested, but alas! the poor sparrow!

We often pondered Scotty's attitude toward the English sparrow.

Perhaps it is explained by his single-track mind. He had great powers of concentration. That is what we need now if we are to do our full part in winning the war.

RETURN OF SPRING

Spring is the most popular season of the year. A new feeling of hope comes over the mind as the days become longer and the sun rises higher in the heavens. The increased warmth thaws out cold feet and chilled desires and purposes of the heart. People form new projects, and branch out in new undertakings.

In former years many imaginative persons were so thrilled that they wrote poems about spring, and sent them on to the newspapers. The editor may have put many of them in his wastebasket, but some got printed. They expressed the joy that people feel on being relieved from the cold and restrictions of winter.

The farming districts will soon be full of activity, as the farmers prepare to plant their crops. The home gardeners are laying out their plans, and deciding what to do about seed and fertilizer and digging up the soil. The country will bless them if they increase the space they cultivate, and take a hopeful view of their ability to care for it.

Life seems on an ascending scale in spring. The trees will soon be budding and plants sending up their little green sprouts in the garden. The people look forward to pleasant life outdoors, to their favorite sports and pastimes. The sap rises in the maple trees, and the sugar makers gather their sap and turn out a grand product.

As the season of growth has come, people feel that they can share in that advance and development, and so may be more likely to start new enterprises in the spring. As the plants in the garden and the field show themselves above the ground, so new plans and aspirations in human life appear and people try to accomplish them.

The spring this year finds attention concentrated on the tremendous undertaking of the Allied forces to invade the continent of Europe and free it from Nazi domination. If it succeeds, and there are strong reasons to believe that it will, those countries will be like the land which was covered by deep snow in winter, but which is set free by the warm sun, so that the soil can spring forth in beauty and productiveness again.

THIS CHANGING WORLD

There is a lack of indication that any post-war policy of wing-clipping or narrow nationalism will get far with Canada's young men. They have become accustomed to the broader scene.

The other day in Montreal two flying boys were completing their Valentine shopping. "Another item and I'm through," one told the other. "I crave nuts. Saw some beauties in a store window. Let's go."

They did go, up and down St. Catherine street and side streets, ogling every display. No nuts.

"I know I saw them," the senior flier persisted. "They were in a cart beside a box of dried apricots."

Further search brought no better luck. They were at dinner some hours later when it came to him.

"I know where I saw those nuts," he suddenly recalled. "It was in Reykjavik, Iceland."

Penned and Pilfered

It is true that when a man and a woman marry they are one. But which one has not been definitely settled.

The flapper girl of twenty years ago is the same one who is now worried about her jitterbug daughter.

When a man is born his mother gets the congratulations and the flowers, when he marries his wife gets the presents, and when he dies his widow gets the insurance.

Perhaps we shall all go back to simpler living, as in the old home town, where a character with $50,000 and a few mortgages was known, by courtesy, as a millionaire.

On the Home Front too...

When a gun goes into action every man has a job to do. Seconds count, and team work gets results. Training . . . endless training . . . gets efficiency that makes each man part of a perfect machine.

But something more than efficiency is needed to make a top-notch fighting unit. There must be loyalty . . . that spirit of responsibility that each man feels toward his mates.

We've got efficiency on the farm front . . . we're producing more, and with less help to do it. Keep up the teamwork that will make each one of us go all out to support our men on the fighting front.

We too, are part of a fighting unit . . . citizens of a nation at war. We must not let our men on the fighting front down.

Invasion means high tension on the fighting fronts . . . combined operations . . . thorough team work in every detail. And that call for greater action comes back to us at home. We have a job to do here, too. We must all buy Victory Bonds. We have a responsibility to our mates on the firing line. We can't let them down.

And the job that we are asked to do is . . . save more, and lend more to our country. We are asked to let our country have the use of money that we do not need now. We will have the money later on to improve our farms and to buy stock and equipment; for new barns and silos; for new furnishings and conveniences for our homes.

Be ready to buy more Victory Bonds.

EVERY ONE HAS A JOB TO DO.

Mainly For MILADY

Badge of Rebellious Youth

Bobby socks on the ankles of adolescent girls, who stay out too late at night have become a juvenile delinquency problem and yet it seems that, there is no such thing as a bobby sock. There are, of course, anklets. This continent's mills turned out over 300,000 pairs last year and many of them were purchased by mothers of families and demure old grandmothers. It is only when purchased by high school girls and allowed to flop around their ankles that anklets become bobby socks and, like zoot suits, a badge of rebellious youth stirring sociologists to action. Until silk returns, and also girdles with elastic suspenders to hold up silk stockings, the hosiery makers are convinced there will be girls in bobby socks and also thousands of hard working women wearing anklets with slacks and overalls.

Nothing To Wear

The woman, and her name is legion, who as Easter approaches feels "she has 'positively nothing to wear," must feel envious of Paul Whiteman. That famous pioneer of jazz music has not visited his tailor for two years but, in spite of his war economy, he has more than 100 suits, not one of which cost less than $150. He is, however, not such a clothes hoarder as he seems, for many of his suits were purchased before he reduced his poundage from 213 to 185. He can still wear his former shoes of which he has 75 hand-made pairs and, in addition to that, 76 pairs of cowboy boots! He has 12 sports suits and a radio in each of the 12 rooms in his New Jersey farmhouse. It is not only women who will envy him. Men also, who love pipes, will feel a longing for his collection of 150. He has a wife, and if her wardrobe is on the same scale as his, she is assuredly not one of the women who have nothing to wear.

Large Sugar Consumption

To women falls the task of preparing food for a hungry world and since the dawn of time, they have been zealous in making it attractive and delicious to the taste. One of the prime methods of improving on Mother Nature is to add sweetness to some of her products.

From ancient India comes the first record of sugar. From there it worked its way to China. In an old manuscript we learn that in the year 600 A.D. a wise old Emperor of China sent men to India to learn the art of sugar-making.

From China the cultivation of sugar cane and the making of sugar spread to Egypt. The Arabs introduced it into Sicily and Spain, and from here it was carried to Siam, Ceylon, Java and other countries of the old world. Soon after the discovery of America it was brought to Cuba and nearby islands, and thus to the North American continent.

Canadian people have developed a terrifically sweet tooth. We like our apple sauce sweet as honey—our pancakes have to be smothered in syrup, our porridge must be loaded down with brown sugar, our cakes piled high with icing. We want sugar in our tea . . . some of us even put sugar on our lettuce and tomatoes. When we can't have it we get to feeling sorry for ourselves and think we are badly used.

Once a week a sugar coupon becomes valid. Each one is good for a half pound of sugar. This means that Canadians use in their own homes five and a quarter million pounds of sugar every week of the year just as regular as clockwork. Added to this every person, man, woman and child, from a day-old baby to the grandad of the community can get an additional half pound every two weeks if they care to use the "D" coupon for sugar instead of preserves. On top of that, there is the yearly allowance of 10 pounds per person for canning. This extra item adds up to 115 millions pounds a year.

If you live in or near a city you can occasionally buy a cake or pie, a few doughnuts, cookies or a raisin here to tide you along. If you live in the country, and can't get this added sweetness, you can tell yourself that you have more butter, cream and maybe your own maple syrup or honey to balance the whole thing and make your family feel well fed and righteous.

After all, we didn't have bombs for breakfast, incendiaries with our lunch, or block busters for dinner.

—Edna Jacques.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNEALLAN

Hydro Home Economist

Dear Homemakers: Some girls wear smart print dresses all day, some wear war-service uniforms, others business plaids, and others denim jeans. Their problem is shared by every woman—how can they keep their clothes in order. They want an answer to, "Which one of my dresses is clean, pressed and ready to wear?"

It's true that regular care makes the problem easier. That is: always use a hanger for your clothes, turn inside out and air them frequently, brush daily, and keep fasteners sewn on securely.

But to be well-groomed send them to the dry cleaners regularly—never let pressing take the place of laundering or dry-cleaning. Keeping clothes clean and fresh is one of the first rules of looking well dressed, as well as making clothes last longer.

Then press often, to keep looking well-groomed. Begin with the sleeves. It is easiest to press them on the right side; but, of course, you should use a pressing cloth to prevent shine. If you have a sleeve board or an ironing board with a narrow end, you can easily press the thick cap of the sleeve over it. Otherwise, roll up a small Turkish towel and slip it inside the shoulder and the cap of the sleeve, and press these sections. Then move the towel down and press the sleeve. This will avoid creasing. Turn the dress inside out. Now press the fabric itself. In pressing woolens or crepe weaves, use an up-and-down stamping motion to prevent stretching; but with smooth fabrics press with an ironing motion—ever forget to press the seams flat for this is what gives your dress a trim, well-tailored look. Now turn to the right side, and finish pockets, double thickness,

The Optimistic Group of Grimsby by Chapter 195, O.E.S., held a very enjoyable dance, well attended, in Hawke's Hall on Friday, March 24th, with Norton's Orchestra rendering their usual fine music. The lucky winners in the spot dances were Mrs. J. Tenant, and Miss Kathleen Yeager. The door prize was won by Miss Ruth Linden-smith.

Another of these dances will be held on Friday evening, April 14th.

In Memoriam

RICHARDSON—In loving memory of Nellie W. Richardson, a dear Wife and Mother, who passed away March 25th, 1942.

With silent tears and an aching heart,
I stood that night and watched you depart;

To have to hold, and then to part,
Is the greatest trial of the human heart.

91 Give Blood

Grimsby Blood Clinic for March, held in the Trinity hall on Wednesday of last week was a very satisfactory one. 91 donors gave plasma there being 9 from Beamsville, 13 from Smithville, 10 from Winona and 59 from Grimsby.

The next clinic will be held on Wednesday afternoon, April 26th, and persons who have not as yet registered with the clinic and who would like to donate blood should communicate with Wm. Hewson at telephone 340, Grimsby.

The Grimsby Red Cross are making an appeal for old woollens to be made into blankets.

Seven pounds of woollen material such as old blankets, sweaters, wool underwear, scarves, toques, etc., will make one blanket, at a cost of $1.75.

Hard woven material like wool tweed-suits, serge suits, overcoats, wool flannel, worsteds, etc., require twelve pounds and the cost is $2.25.

The need for blankets is great. This is one way you can help without one cent of cost to yourself. All that is required is a little time to sort the articles.

One important thing, the materials must be clean with all linings and buttons removed.

Donations may be left at the Red Cross room in the Post Office on Monday or Thursday afternoon between two and five o'clock.

Further information can be secured from Mrs. "Buddy" Shafer, by calling telephone 208.

Boy Scouts

On Saturday afternoon, March 25th, two car loads left Grimsby to attend the Scout conference at Niagara Falls. This was a Niagara District get together and over 350 scout leaders paraded the General Brock lobbies. During the afternoon these leaders divided into four groups being Scout, Cub, Administration, Rover and studied how to run and operate Scout troops. Many questions were brought up which helped the individual leader to go back home and put new ideas to work in his troop that he had never had before. Yes the conference was a huge success and the following leaders from Grimsby — Winona were glad that they attended: Wm. Greig, Jim Baker, Donald Pettit, Douglas Bedford, Ian Marr and Jeff Hambrick and Harry Walters from Winona.

At our regular Monday night Scout meeting the patrol leaders took charge of the troop and during the short period in scout corners they exchanged patrols. Instruction was given in knot tying, First Aid, compass and signals. Yes these boys do it and it was very pleasing to their scout master to see them handle the trip so efficiently.

Several of the tenderfoot scouts now have their work prepared and are patiently waiting for their PL's to hear them before they will be turned over to the Scoutmaster for final examination. We wish to welcome to the troop Tom Higgins who has just moved to Grimsby. Du — the evening the court of Honor accepted him as a member

COUNTY COUNCIL GIVES
information consisted of A. R. Globe, Grimsby; Bruce Reid Beamsville,
and Dr. J. H. Leeds, Smithville.

Purchase of a new Jersey herd
sire for the Lincoln County Home
was left in the hands of the Home
Board of Management. Recommendations for a few minor alterations at the Home, included in the report of the Grand Jury, were also left to the Board for consideration.

THEY EVEN STEAL
cloth from the store of Miss Nancy Aiton, who quickly noticed the loss and had suspicions. She immediately called Acting Chief Constable LePage who apprehended the woman.
In St. Catharines police court on Friday she pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate James H. Campbell.

Provincial police of the Grimsby detachment spent considerable time on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week investigating an alleged kidnapping story told by two young pupils of the Lower Thirty School, Clinton township, who finally admitted that the whole thing was "just a story."

According to the police, the two youngsters, both girls, aged 9 and 10 years, had been dismissed from classes at 3:30 p.m. but had failed to arrive at their homes till around 7 o'clock in the evening and told a lurid story about being made prisoners. It was just a cover up to avoid parental chastisement.

COUNTY TURNS THUMBS
out of the hands of the county council as we have no jurisdiction over the nurses or the inspector."

The favourable financial condition of the county was indicated in the report of S. R. Cruikshank, who presented his auditor's report
on last year's county business. "No county rates were outstanding for the only time in my 24 years' experience with the county," he reported. He noted that $43,400 in debtenture debt is still outstanding,
but that this will be retired by next January 2nd, at which time Lincoln County will become free of debtenture debt. He noted that the bank loan last year was unusually low—only $3,396.50.

Roy V. Winger, treasurer of the St. Catharines and Lincoln County Children's Aid Society,
wrote that the Society estimates
the county's share of children's aid costs this year will be $9,781.26, compared with $8,411 last year.
This year the amount will pay for the boarding home costs of 32
children who are in county wards, at a rate of some $4 cents a day. He pointed out that the preventive work, and many other branches of work of the Children's Aid Society
this year will cost about $7,000, which must be raised through the tag day, grants, etc., and he asked that the county council make a grant of $1,000 toward this fund.

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

pointed out that considerable sums had been earmarked by the donors for special purposes and for this reason the original estimates had been increased.

Detailed estimates were given among which was an item of $3, 000.00 for Operating Room equipment including Sterilizers, Operating Light, Table etc. and a suggestion was made that County increase their previous donation to provide for this most necessary

Mr. Globe emphasized that this is a publicly owned utility, operated for the benefit of the people, and it was pleasing to know that the people are behind it as evidenced by their financial support.

Dr. Leeds stated that at first he was not in favor of the project, but that the hospital situation is becoming increasingly pressing and that the medical men in this district cannot secure room for their patients. The city hospitals are crowded and they have no room for their own, without caring for centers such as ours.

Dr. Leeds stressed the fact that this building was only the beginning and further additions would be needed probably before the war is over.

Discussions among the county representatives confirmed the situation reported to be found in other sections of the County.

A grant of $2,000.00 toward the building fund was made by the County Council.

With the announced departure of Dr. Rogers to further aggravate the situation in this area, it is hoped that the Hospital will be in operation soon to relieve to some extent this pressing need.

Politics not only makes strange bedfellows. In some cases, it's a strange cilmate.

In this post-war planning, let's hope they will make the world safe for the innocent bystander.

First Objective

In these decisive months all Canada's effort is concentrated on one great objective —
the attack that is to destroy the Nazi ~~unace~~ and all that it represents. Years of work have gone into its preparation. The best of our young men are staking their lives on its success.

We in Canada must support and strengthen this attack with all our effort. This one purpose must command our work, our minds and our hearts.

We must not permit any scramble for private gain or individual selfish ends, to distract us from our main task. If we concentrate on seeking, individually or jointly, higher prices,

higher pay or higher profits, we shall be diverting our attention from the main task at this critical time. We shall also endanger the stability of prices which we in Canada have achieved after great difficulties—a stability that is essential to efficiency and fairness in war,
and to peacetime prosperity afterward.

Our young men are fighting for a Canada and a world in which all men can have faith, hope and security. Each of them wants to come back to a job—or a farm—with a future. We at home must keep secure for them a strong and stable foundation on which alone a postwar period of promise and achievement can be built.

This advertisement is one of a series being issued by the Government of Canada to emphasize the importance of preventing further increases in the cost of living now and deflation later.
